FROM MY HEART TO YOURS:

Not long ago my grandson, Will, was walking down the side walk in Talladega and with great excitement found a penny. He bent over to pick it up and sadly discovered that the penny had been glued down by someone as a practical joke. (Not so funny to Will.)

I wonder how many of us would even stop to pick up a penny? It really does not hold a great deal of value does it? It seems that we are living in a day when we now esteem the value of a life so low that it must break God's heart.

God cares for the seemingly worthless with better value than we. The Bible says that God cares for the sparrow and cares so much more for you and me.

At Calvary He spent all He had to buy the souls of those who put Him to death. So much for so little. In our senseless world, God goes on "picking" up pennies. In the midst of Jesus suffering, He says that the very hairs of our heads are numbered. (Matthew 10:30)

Ever wonder if you are worth anything anymore? The greatest evidence of our thoughtful, caring, loving God can be heard in the words of an old spiritual:

I sing because I'm happy,
 I sing because I'm free,
 For His eye is on the sparrow
 And I know He watches me.

Rest in that wonderful thought. Till next time.

Yours in Christ,

Bro. Hill
